

T.M.V. GLENBANK.
COLOMBO

S.S. City of Manila

S.S. Bolton
Castle

S.S. Cyclops
Kobe

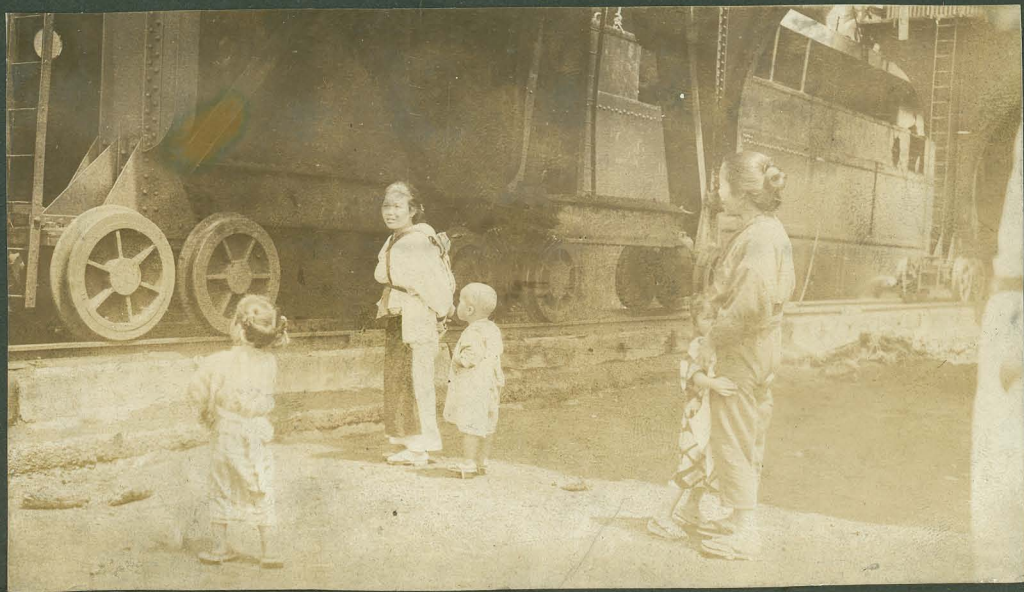

Inland Sea
Japan

S.S. Cyclops
Hankow

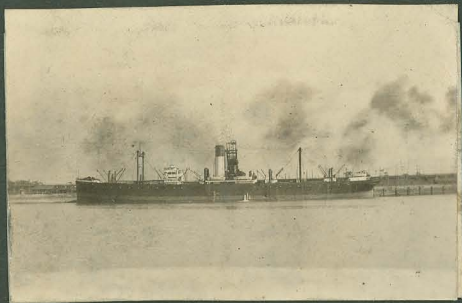

Mike

SS. Pakelaki
at New York.

S. S. Cyclops

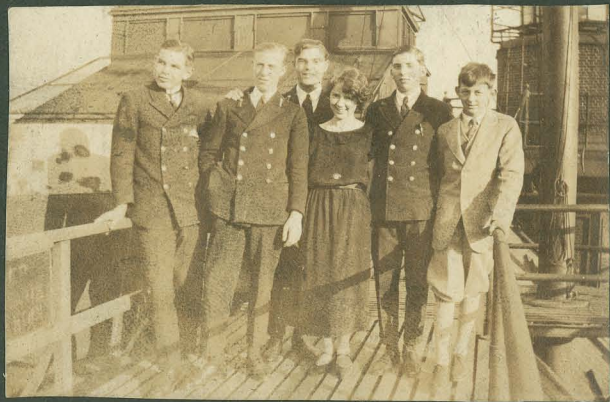

SS City of Norwich, SS Elveric SS Trewinnard

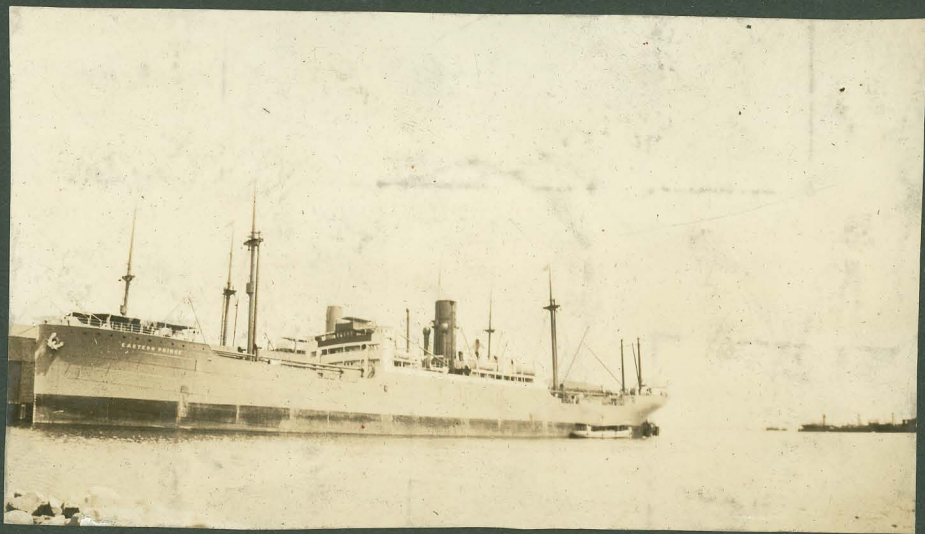

Sardines

MISS MURIEL LOCKYER, the twelve-year-old daughter of Captain Lockyer, of the Houston liner Hyacinthus, who, by signing articles as member of the crew sailed 19,000 miles on her father's ship. Our photograph was taken as she sailed a week ago yesterday, unaccompanied, on the Canopic, of the White Star Line, bound to visit her home in England.

Staff Photo-Zerbet

S.S. Eastern Prince

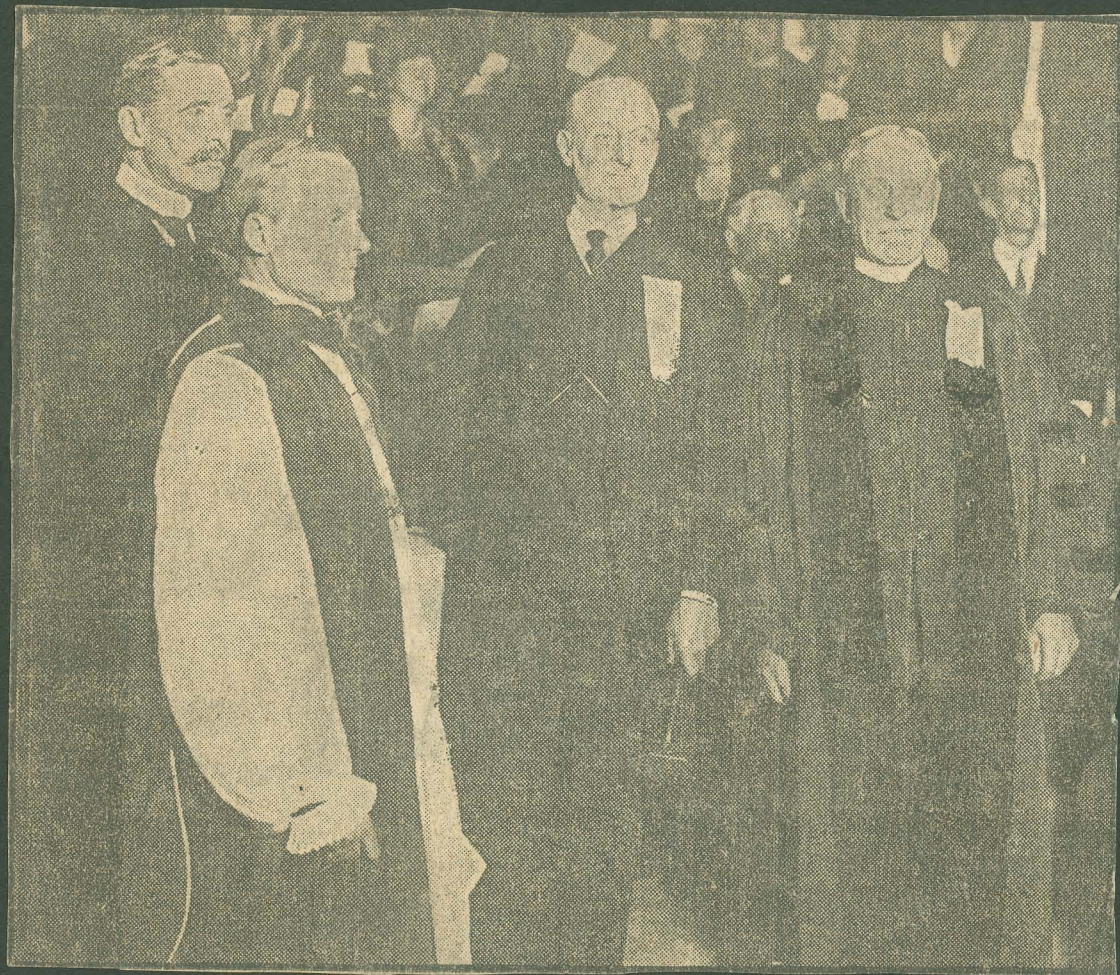

S.S. Karanga

S. S. Celtic Prince

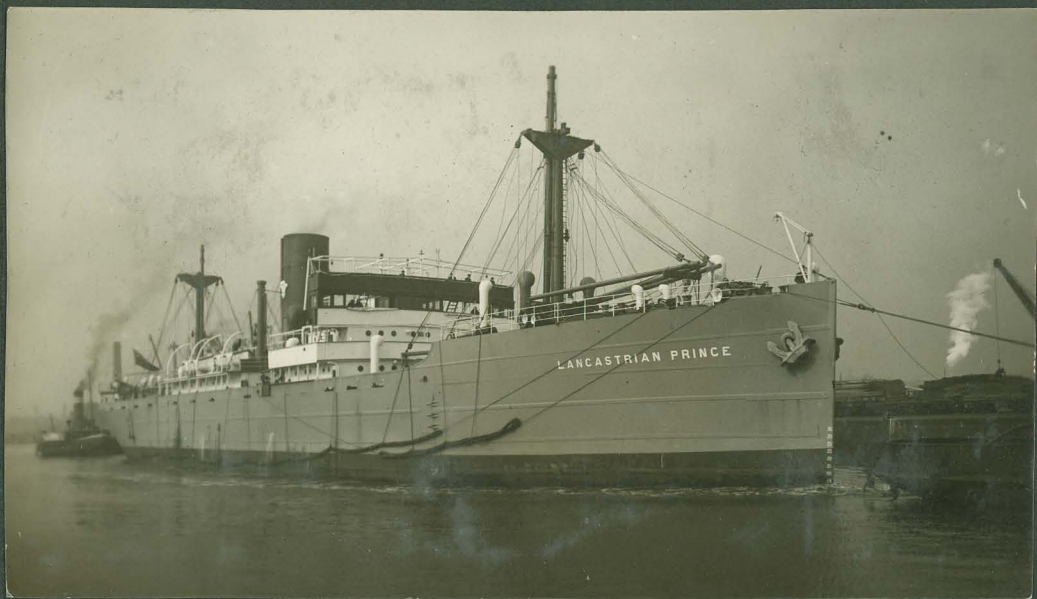

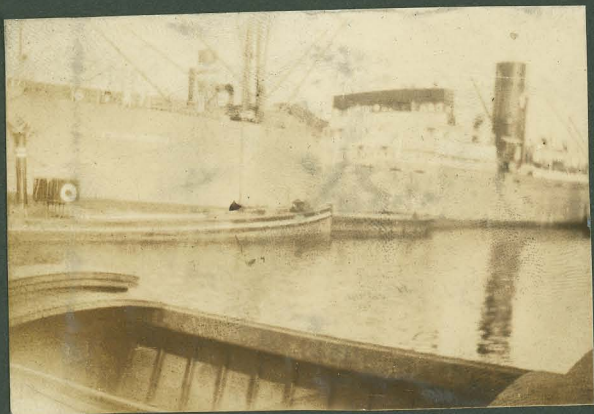

1925
15
15

A HARBOR ENLARGED. The cornerstone of the annex to the Seamen's Church Institute, 25 South Street, which will soon accommodate 1,500 seafaring men a day, was laid yesterday by Rear Admiral William S. Sims, U. S. N. (retired). Left to right—Edmund L. Baylies, chairman of the building committee; Bishop Manning, Admiral Sims and the Rev. Dr. A. R. Mansfield, superintendent.

Staff Photo—Schoenhals

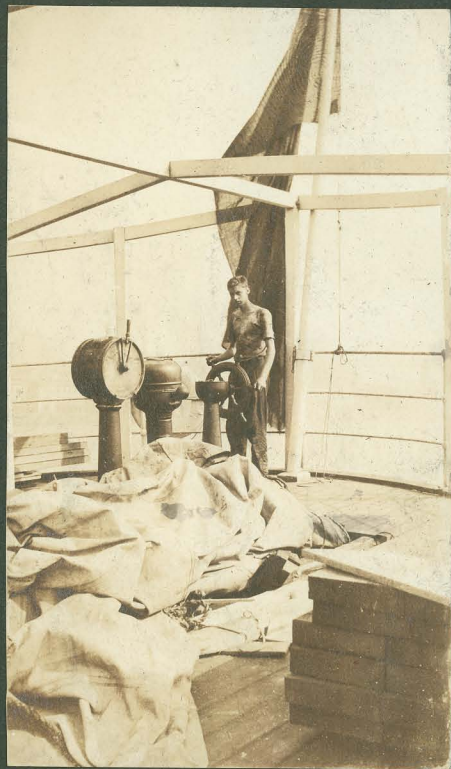

S.S. Italian Prince

S.S. Denham

SS. Gaelic Prince

S.S. Pareora

M.V. Glenbank

S.S. Lawther Castle

S.S. Zealand

"Jean et Jules" at the Statue of Liberty

S.S. Zealand

M. V. Silveray

S.S. Corsican Prince

S.S. Portuguese Prince

S.S. City of Manila

The 'Cellist and the Cadet
S. S. Columbia

S.S. Archimedes

Dennis
S.S. Elveric

S.S. Zealand

25 South St.

S.S. African Prince

The Orchestra
S.S. Columbia

The Violinist and the Pianist at work

S. S. Minerie

MISADVENTURE.—Across wild wastes of water from India came the Glenbank without mishap, and then fire broke out early yesterday in jute cargo as she lay alongside Brooklyn pier. Vessel was scuttled to save it. She will be floated today. (NEWS photo)

M. Y. Glenbank

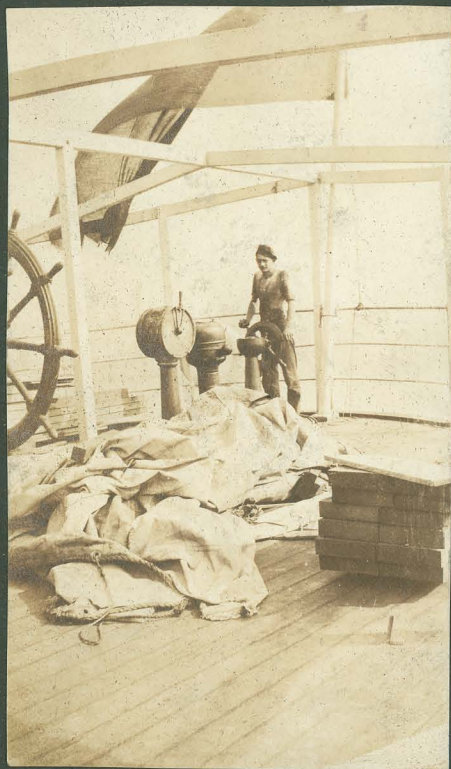

Jimmy

S. S. Zealand

S.S. Gaelic Prince

S.S. Indian Prince

S.S. Brazilian Prince

Bunny

S.S. Pentreath

