ANNUAL REPORT
OF
GIFTS & GRANTS

THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE
OF NEW YORK AND NEW JERSEY

MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD OF MANAGERS

Dear Friends:

We are pleased to present to you this report of the generous contributions received by the Seamen's Church Institute of New York and New Jersey during the fiscal year, 1988.

As you will note, friends of the Institute contributed more than $1.1 million in gifts and grants during 1988, evidence of an abiding concern for the safety and well being of seafarers of all nations, particularly those who go down to the sea in merchant vessels.

On behalf of our colleagues on the Board of Managers and the seafarers we are pledged to serve, we extend our thanks to all who support the Institute's mission with their time, their financial resources, their skills and their enthusiasm.

With gratitude and best regards.

Sincerely,

Alfred Lee Loomis, III

GIVING TO THE INSTITUTE

*Y*OU MAY BE ABLE TO CONTRIBUTE more to the Institute than you realize. Current tax laws encourage generous gifts by providing significant tax incentives. If you itemize your deductions, the net cost of a gift to the Institute will be less in almost every case than the dollar amount of your contribution.

CASH

The simplest form of giving to SCI is cash. Gifts of cash are deductible for Federal income tax purposes up to a maximum of 50% of your adjusted gross income in any given year. Any excess may be carried forward and deducted, subject to the same 50% limitation, in the next five taxable years until such excess has been fully deducted.

SECURITIES

A gift of securities enables you to take a charitable deduction on your income tax return equivalent to the full market value of the securities. A gift of appreciated securities is of considerable tax advantage to you and allows you to avoid the tax on capital gains, which you would pay if you were to sell the securities. Generally, your deduction in any one year for the full market value of a gift of appreciated securities may not exceed 30% of your adjusted gross income. Any excess may be carried over and deducted, subject to the same 30% limitation, in the next five years until the excess has been fully deducted.

Donors who may be subject to Alternative Minimum Tax should discuss with their tax advisors the possible effect of that tax on gifts of appreciated property.

REAL ESTATE

Real property including land, buildings, or leaseholds are welcomed. Gifts of appreciated real estate follow the same general guidelines as those gifts of appreciated securities. Should you wish to retain the use of a personal residence during your lifetime, income and estate tax benefits can be realized by deeding such real estate to SCI while retaining a life interest.

LIFE INSURANCE

If you no longer need the protection of a life insurance policy, you may irrevocably transfer ownership of the policy to SCI. In most cases, you will be entitled to a charitable deduction equivalent approximately to the policy's cash surrender value. There are other options that can be advantageous to you regarding: 1. payment of premiums on policies; 2. fully paid insurance policies; 3. taking out a new insurance policy naming SCI as owner and sole beneficiary.

RETAINED LIFE INCOME GIFTS

You may make a gift to SCI now but continue to receive income from these assets. Money, securities (or in some cases other property) can be transferred irrevocably to a trustee and a specified annuity (or a percentage of principal value) will be paid each year to you and/or another beneficiary you name. After the death of the last income recipient, the principal belongs to SCI. A retained life income gift ordinarily has both income tax and estate tax advantages for you. Because these gifts (which are set up as trust funds—either in the form of unitrust or annuity trust) are separately invested, a minimum gift of $50,000 is required to allow for adequate investment diversification.

BEQUESTS

An outright bequest to SCI, as well as certain bequests in trust, will reduce your Federal estate tax. An unrestricted bequest, one in which you enable SCI to add to its endowment or to expend in whole or in part as it judges best might read:

"I give ___ (dollars) to Seamen's Church Institute of New York and New Jersey, a New York Corporation having its principal office at 50 Broadway, New York, NY 10004, for the general purpose of said Institute.

There are also a number of other forms that a bequest may take including: 1. a residuary bequest (share or percentage of any residual estate after specific bequests have been satisfied) 2. a contingent bequest (provision which becomes effective only if some condition is not met such as a spouse or child surviving you) 3. a charitable testamentary trust (assets bequeathed are to a trust which provides both for individuals and for SCI).

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

Personal or memorial gifts of $35,000 or more entitle the donor to a special page, inscribed with your commemorative message, in the Institute's Book of Remembrance. This handcrafted, beautifully illuminated book is retained in the Institute's chapel and allows the donor to reserve a special memorial Red Letter Day in perpetuity. Book of Remembrance memorials can be established in a variety of ways including deferred gifts, bequests, endowments, or other special plans.

LIVING HONOR GIFTS

A thoughtful way to remember friends and relatives (and have them remember you) on birthdays, anniversaries and other special occasions. We will acknowledge your gift with an attractive letter to the Honoree and send you a receipt for your records.

MEMORIAL GIFTS

Memorial gifts of any amount are also gratefully received. These names are also retained in a special book and at the donor's request appropriate members of the family are notified of the gift.

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

We welcome the opportunity to talk with you or your advisors about ways you might make a gift to the Institute. Please write or call: John D. Bradley, Director of Development, Seamen's Church Institute of New York and New Jersey, 50 Broadway, New York, NY 10004. Telephone: 212/269-2710.
