

VISITORS BOOK.

1st Sunday

Morning

Kimmel

Afternoon

Ironbridge

2nd

Ironbridge

B. J. Rogers

3rd

Fisher

Holmes

4th

B. J. Rogers

Tracy

5th

Jenkins

8th Monday place 2nd Sunday in May Lyman in Ch. of London

Easter Morning 1864

Services & sermon on the pier.
About 50 men & 10 children present.
Attention very good. Tracts & papers distributed before & papers after service.
No Visitor W. J. Walker.

Easter Sunday Afternoon

Service on a barge opposite the room 150 persons present after a sermon by the missionary 31 Men went to the room

6	English Testaments
3	Portuguese	do
1	French	do
4	Sailors Manuals
13	Miscellaneous

Tracts and papers distributed of children attended Sunday School which is held between the services

At the morning service the Missionary was invited by a Committee of Boatmen to officiate at the funeral of one of their companions who was killed two days before. At the time appointed about 150 Boatmen assembled near our rooms lead by the Missionary they marched to pier 19 East River where the boat was on which the service was to be held. The Missionary

read the ~~the~~ service and made a very appropriate address

J. L. Morgan
Visitor

Sunday Morning Apr 3rd 64
A cloudy windy morning succeeding a stormy ^{rainy} night gave us not much hope of gathering a large congregation this morning

Yet there was a gathering of about 40 to 50 persons who listened attentively to the sermon preached by our Missionary & heard of the invitation given to them to come to Christ repenting of their sins, whilst they were

get in a state of grace As there is joy of the angels in Heaven over one sinner who repenteth, may we not hope, that this may be case in even the smallest congregation we are able to gather. Tracts & Papers were distributed, as usual.
W. K. Kimball

Sunday Afternoon April 5 1864
Cloudy, About 120 persons.
Lamen & Portman assembled Historical Attention to Lamen from our Missionary, 45 Men & Wives came to the Arm Room. After singing Books were distributed to them, As follows 1 Bible 12 Testa

ments & Ladies Mammals
#11. Miscellaneous & Lamen Books
Also Tracts & Papers. For Charles City, of the Board present J. J. Appleton Walter

Sunday, April 10, 1864
^{26 present} A heavy storm of wind & rain prevailing which swept the streets & pews, service was held in the room for the comfort of a few secular students.
No Visitor. R. J. Walker.

Sunday, afternoon April 10th 1864
A driving East wind prevailed our holding service on the pier As we commenced on the pier walk under the awning, and some 50 persons gathered North of the After singing two hymns we adjoined to our room ^{when} ~~after~~ after singing another hymn, service was read and a most excellent and impressive sermon preached by our Missionary & 2 or 3 persons apparently all sailors -

Books Ac. taken to Instruments
8 Manuals
12 Miscellaneous

J. J. Hammond
Visitor

Sunday Morning April 17 1864
A very fine day. Service & sermon on the barge. to about 60 persons who were attentive to a good discourse by the missionary. Tracts & Cards distributed before sermon and religious papers after service. Visitors as follows
H. J. Jones

Sunday afternoon April 17 1864
This afternoon a good attendance on the Wharf 180 to 200 present mostly Seaman & Boatmen - Service & sermon by the missionary on a Barge - about 30 persons came into the room mostly Seaman - where after an interesting address by the missionary books, papers & tracts were distributed.

1 Bible
19 English & 2 German Testaments
5 Sailors Manuals
13 Miscellaneous books with papers & tracts - Mr. Ely } Visitor
an. Mr. H. Jones }

Sunday M^o April 24. 1864.
A congregation of 80 persons assembled on a barge opposite the room.
It was principally composed of sailors and boatmen. Several Masters of vessels were present; one captain having crossed the ferry from Brooklyn to attend the service.

All were exceedingly attentive. Some of the sermon united heartily in the singing. The Missionary officiated.
Cards, tracts & papers distributed.
No Visitor. R. J. Walker.

Sunday Afternoon April 24/64
Clear warm weather drew quite a large congregation to our services in a barge this afternoon; the number varying from 100 to 150.
Mr Morgan at request of Pastor
Mr Walker read the service.
After which the Missionary preached an impressive sermon on faith.
Fifty men came into the barge, about one half of them Sailors the other boatmen.
Books distributed as follows

21 Testaments
8 Latin Prayers
30 Miscellaneous Union Tracts & papers - Jane Hopkins
J. L. Morgan & J. P. Bennett Pastors

Sunday Morn (May 1st 1864.
Seventy-five men (mostly seamen & boatmen), several children & two respectable females met on a barge opposite the room & listened with much attention to the service & sermon.
Cards & tracts distributed before & papers given away after service.
No Visitor. R. J. Walker.

Sunday Afternoon May 1st 1864
The soft mild weather gave us a large congregation on a barge lying at fair post of Broad St

The Congregation numbering from 100 to 150 at different times during the services - After an excellent Sermon by the Missionary on "Heaven" - After the Close 78 persons came to the Room - of 52 Boatmen 18 Sailors & 8 Children

Books were distributed as follows

20 Testament - (19 Eng & 1 Danish)

24 Prayer Books. 10 Manuals,

38 Miscellaneous with much paper

Old Chy &

The New Testament

Witton

Another Test given to a boy belonging to a cornal boat R. J. W.

Sund Morn May 8 1864

Service & Sermon on a barge along side of South St near our Room. 40 or upwards attended throughout, besides several who came & went during the services, and nearly all were from the Ships. Several of the seamen joined in the singing, and all gave perfect attention in all the exercises. We had the Room & South St for today

Chas Tracy

Sunday Afternoon May 8 1864

A fine afternoon. Services were held on a barge opposite the Room the Rev. Mr. Sayes of Rainswood preached an impressive Sermon.
About 80 were present. After Service 37 came to the Room nearly all of whom were Sailors Mr. Sayes made a short address after which the following Books were distributed 1 Bible, 18 English & 1 French Testament

3 Prayer Books, 2 Sailors Manuals, & 18 Miscellaneous Books with Tracts & papers

16 children were { Henry Rogers also present } H. S. Perkins

17 children were also present and received small books.

A boy from the boats received one just after the visitors had left

R. J. M.

Sunday Morn'g May 15. 1864.

A damp, disagreeable morning, yet we counted over 80 at the service, nearly all of whom were seamen or boatmen, including some Italian sailors.

All remained to the end of the sermon, with the exception of the Italians, who could not understand but little English.

No Visitor.

R. J. M. Mar.

Sunday afternoon May 15. 1864.
weather showery & unfavorable yet we had at one time about 120 on the barge, nearly all of whom were seamen or boatmen, a large number of whom ^{probably one hundred} came up to the room & received books. Eighteen of them were sailors. Books distributed as follows - 44 English & French & 4 German Testaments. 8 Sailors manuals. 2 prayer books. 32 Miscellaneous, 30 Hymns - 10 small books with tracts.

F. P. Cummings - of the Board.

Wm. Hayward, volunteer

Sunday Morning May 22nd 1864

Very Pleasant - but warm -

Service was held on a Barge near the room - at Pier 5. In consequence of a break in the Canal there were but few boats - yet the congregation numbered 60 persons - mostly Seamen & Boatmen there were several Captains of Vessels present - excellent attention was given during the service & also to the sermon after which papers were distributed

B. J. Rogers
Volunteer

Afternoon

Weather very fine. Same barge used. Present at least 150, most of them from the vessels. Attention very good throughout all the service & the sermon

This mission being without proper quarters, the Missionary at Large had the distribution of books from an office at 16 South St. in which he has the privilege of temporary occupation of a small room.

Books issued. 42 Testaments. 2 Manuals & 44 Miscellaneous Books: - ~~some were copies~~

There were 82 men who came to the room for books

Present of the Board

Mr Hopkins, Mr Iron-bridge

Mr Messenger & Mr Tracy

Sunday morning May 29. 1864 Beautiful morning - Sermon & sermon by the Missionary on a barge opposite the rooms -

Attendance about 80 -

Usual papers were distributed

E. C. Rogers
Visitor

H. J. Jenkins
Committee

Sunday Afternoon May 29 1864

Our services were held on a Barge foot Broad St. our Missionary officiating. We had an audience of about 110. Consisting almost wholly of Seamen & Boatmen, who gave seemingly earnest heed to the words spoken, many uniting with us in the responses & in singing.

after our meeting we assembled at our rooms in South St.

and after uniting in singing Books were distributed to 84 persons. 14 of whom were Seamen. Books given out viz

Testaments	42	}	Visitors
Prayer Books	4		}	F. H. Frothingham
Miscellaneous	35

Sunday Morning 5 June 1864

Our services were held on a barge foot of Broad St.

About 65 persons mostly Boatmen ^{& Sailors} were present.

Our Missionary officiating.
The men listening with deep attention to ^a solemn sermon which was preached by him & will we hope not lose its effect on them.

The singing of the men was very good indeed.

One Captain just arrived from Cuba, came over from Brooklyn, and was very much affected by the sermon.

Tracts & papers were distributed as usual.

J. H. Kinnel

Sunday Afternoon June 5th 1864

A drizzling rain, yet we had out the Service on the Barge about 90 Sailors & Boatmen, who listened very attentively to the Service & discourse. The Captain who was with us in the Morn^g, crossed the river to participate in the afternoon exercises. 83 Sailors, Boatmen & Boys from the boats came to the room for books - 10 were Sailors.

Books distributed as follows,

43 English and 1 Danish Test^t

2 Prayer Books and 1 Manual

37 Miscellaneous Books

No Visitor. R. J. Walker. +

Sunday Morn^g June 12th 1864

Service on a barge foot of Broad St^h

About 70 persons in attendance.

Cards, Tracts & papers distributed.

No Visitor. R. J. Walker.

Sunday afternoon June 12 1864

A very fine afternoon. The services were held on a Barge at the foot of Broad Street quite a large and attentive assembly being present numbering about 100. After Service 74 came to the room including 20 Boys ^{from the Barges}, all of the men being either Sailors or Boatmen. The room No 22 South St being so small that it was impossible to make any address to those present ~~and~~ the books had to be given out through the window. There were distributed 28 English & 1 French Testaments 3 Prayer Books, 2 Manuals & 42 English Miscellaneous & 1 German Book binds Fourth

N. F. Sending
Henry Rogers

(over)

2 Testaments, 1 Prayer Book and 1 Hymn Book given to persons from the Boat, after the Visitors had left.
P. J. W.

Sunday Morning June 19. 1864.
Services & Sermon by the Missionary
to a very attentive congregation of some 40 persons. Several joined in the singing - Papers were distributed after service - A number asked to obtain a copy of the Service tract.
The writer thinks a fair distribution of them would lead up to an interest in the Prayer Book.

Present Messrs Fisher & Rommey
& a gentleman interested.

Sunday Afternoon June 19. 1864

The services were held on the extreme end of the pier foot of Broad St. The ground suitable being that could be procured ~~but~~ too far from the street
to attract the passer by - but about 40 were present &
apparently much interested
On the neighboring barges
a few were seen listening to the services. After service 16 persons ~~several~~ went to our rooms & rec'd books & tracts - viz
12 Testaments, 14 Newell's Books Tracts abt. tracts.

Present Miss Caldwell &
Mashale

Sunday Morn June 26th 1864.

The morning oppressively hot. But few persons took part on the pier or boat. Service on a very uncomfortable barge to a small congregation of sailors & boatmen. Two seamen from the Scotland Islands (who were unable to attend in the afternoon) came to the room for books & received 1 Bible, 1 Doddridge's rise & progress, 2 Manuals with tracts &c. No Visitor. R. J. Walker.

Sunday P.M. June 26. 1864

Services & sermon on a barge by the Missionary. Congregation about 100, mostly from boats & ships. 148 sailors & 57 boatmen came to the room. Two drunken men attempted to trouble him but were quieted. An excessively hot afternoon; yet the Missionary officiated with great zeal & energy, and received marked attention.

Books issued — 31 Testaments

1 Bible 3 Eng. & 1 French Prayer Books. 3 Manuals, & 37 Miscellaneous tracts

Chas. Tracy
J B Watson

2 Bibles and 2 Books in addition

Sunday Morn July 3rd 1864
Very hot, Service first of Broad St. on a floor barge, dirty & inconvenient. From 40 to 50 boatmen present. Very attentive to service & sermon.

No Visitor R. J. Walker.

Sunday P.M. July 3rd 1864
Our services were held on a barge first Broad St. Our minister preaching to an audience of about sixty, forty four came

2 Testaments, 1 Prayer Book and
1 Hymn Book given to persons from the boats, after the visitors had left.

P. J. W.

Sunday Morning June 19. 1864 -
Services & Sermon by the Missionary
to a very attentive congregation
of some 40 persons. Several joined in the singing - Papers were distributed after service - A man asked to retain a copy of the Service tract.
The writer thinks a fair distribution
of them would lead up to an interest
in the Prayer Book -

Present Messrs Fisher & Romains
& a gentleman interested

Sunday Afternoon June 19. 1864

The services were held on the
extreme end of the pier foot
of Broad St - The ground suitable
being that could be procured
but too far from the street
to attract the passer by - but
about 40 were present &
apparently much interested
On the neighboring barges
a few were seen listening
to the services. After service 16 persons ~~present~~ went to Mr. Moore
& rec'd books & tracts viz
12 Testaments, 14 Missalium Books Tracts, etc. etc.

Present Messrs Caldwell &
Marshale

Sunday Morn June 26th 1864.

The morning oppressively hot. But few persons took part on the pier or wharf. Service on a very uncomfortable barge to a small congregation of sailors & boatmen. Two Seamen from the Scotland Island (who were unable to attend in the afternoon) came to the room for books & received 1 Bible, 1 Doddridge's rise & progress, 2 Manuals with tracts &c. No Visitors. P. J. Walker.

Sunday P.M. June 26. 1864

Services & sermons on a barge by the Missionary. Congregation about 100, mostly from boats & ships. 148 sailors & 45 boatmen came to the room. Two drunken men attempted to talk loud but were quieted. An excessively hot afternoon; yet the Missionary officiated with great zeal & energy, and received marked attention.

Books issued _____ 31 Testaments

1 Bible 3 Eng. & 1 French Prayer Books . 3 Manuals, & 37 Miscellaneous books

Chas. Tracy
J B Holmes

2 Bibles and 2 Books in addition

Sunday Morn July 3rd 1864
Very hot, Service foot of Broad St. on a flom barge, dirty & inconvenient. From 40 to 50 boatmen present. Very attentive to service & sermon.

No Visitors P. J. Walker.

Sunday P.M. July 3rd 1864
our services were held on a Barge foot Broad St. Our minister preaching to an audience of about sixty, forty four came up to our room. The Congregation were very attentive & seemed much interested in the sermon. Books & tracts were given to those who came to our room. Nothing of special interest has occurred, the day is very warm, which accounts for our rather small attendance.

Books given out as follows

2 B Testaments - Eng & 1 French

2 B Reading Books

Tracts &c

1 Bible

Five more have come in since we commenced this report.

A N Tomlinson

Visitors B J Rogers

C. G. Mitchell

Sunday Morning, July 10. 1864

Services were held on a Barge at the foot of Broad St - 35 persons in attendance. Altho' the location selected was the best obtainable, yet it was unfavorable for collecting much of a Congregation.
The morning service was read by the Visitor followed by a faithful discourse by the Missionary. - The day a very pleasant one.

J. W. Welchman
Visitor

Sunday After. July 10. 1864

Services on the same barge as in the morning. About 60 were present including a number of Sailors & some respectable females from the neighbouring boats. Good attention paid to service & sermon.

42 persons came to the room for books. 13 were sailors. The rest from the Boats. Books distributed 3 Bibles. 11 English & 2 German Testaments, and 40 Miscellaneous.
books with Tracts.
No Visitor. R. J. Walker.

Sunday Morning July 17/64
Services held for women preached by the Miss^l on a barge near the room - assemblage small, but attentive; services somewhat interrupted by one or two drunken men ~~at the gate~~ Present
Mr Henry Fisher of the Board
The R M Howland
40 persons present. R. J. W

Sunday Afternoon July 17/64

Services were held on a Barge at Broad St pier. Services performed by the Missionary to an attentive audience of about 70 Sailors & Boatmen.
After the service Books were distributed at the room to 42 Sailors Boatmen & Boys, viz
29 Testaments 3 Bibles
33 Miscellaneous Books
& Tracts

E. M. Duncan
Visitor

Sunday Morning July 24
Services on a Steamer at Cowley's Ship to an attentive congregation of 75 persons a majority of whom were Sailors who listened very attentively to the Missionary - visitor Chas Vandewort

Sunday After: July 24th 1864

A congregation numbering about 145 assembled on the deck of the same steamer & adjoining boats this afternoon. Attention all that could be desired. 95 Scissors, boatmen & boys from the boats came to the room & received the following books, viz 2 Bibles. 35 Testaments 4 Prayer Books & 54 Miscellaneous Books with tracts.

Mr. Mitchell of the Board was present during part of the service.

Sunday Morning
Robert J. Walker.

~~Afternoon~~ July 31st 1864
That very oppressive. Few boats in the slips. Few people in the street. Service on a barge foot of Broad St. 62 persons present; very orderly & attentive. Cards tracts & papers distributed. No Visitors

Robert J. Walker.

^{P.M.}
Sunday, July 31 1864
We had an interesting service on a Barge foot Broad St, Rev. Mr. Bourne preaching a good sermon which all appeared to be interested in. There were about 80, of which 14 were females, on the barge.

Eighty four came into our room for whom Books & papers were given as follows,

25 Testaments
6 Prayer Books
50 Miscellaneous Books, tracts & papers. of those who came to our room 25 were seamen.

After all our services were over. Our Missionary invited a couple in Marriage who were attached to one of the Boats. Visitors J. W. Melchman & J. H. Swindler

Sunday morning Aug. 13th 1864

A hot close morning.

Our congregation numbered abt. 60 most all Boatmen & two children. Our Missionary was testified to with great attention & some were much affected by his words.

Before services Tracts
were distributed as usual, and at the closes the Carrier Dove was gladly received.

W. H. Kimball

Sunday Afternoon Aug 7 1864

The services were held on a Barge at the foot of Broad St
A large number of Boatmen were present, in spite of the warmness of the weather about 150 were present, ^{including sailors} together with a large number of boys

After service 128 persons came to the Room where the following Books were distributed

1 Bible 1 Prayer Book 58 Testaments

58 miscellaneous Books Large

Small

2 additional } Heavy Books copies for books } visitors

Sunday Morning Aug 14. 1864

Services on a barge at pier 5. Attendance 83 including several sailors from the North

Riverside. Attention very good.
Tracts, cards & papers distributed.
No Visitor. P. J. Walker.

Sunday aft Aug 14th Services on a large Commodious Barge Congregation about 110 persons who listened attentively - a large number of whom came to the rooms and received Books & Tracts.
The following were distributed Bibles 2
Testaments 39 English & 1 German
Prayer Books 2
Miscellaneous Books large & small 43.
Total number who received Books 84.
Fifteen of whom were Sailors M. Malett of the Sailors Home was present & assisted in the singing Saw, H. Caldwell

Sunday M^d Augt 21st 1864.
A wet disagreeable morning.
Services on a large foot of Broad St.
12 persons present, nearly all of whom were from the boats. Attention very good. Cards, tracts & papers distributed. No Visitor.
P. J. Walker.

Sunday aft Aug 21st 1864
A drizzling rain, rendering everything sloppy & uncomfortable, yet we had a congregation numbering 75, mostly Sailors & boatmen who paid strict attention to the service & sermon. I was supplied with books in the room as follows 4 Bibles. 30 Testaments.
1 Prayer Book. 28. Miscellaneous Books with tracts & religious papers.
No Visitor
P. J. Walker

Sunday M^o Aug 28th 1864

A pleasant prom^s. Services on a large boat of A. A. Board there 66 being present. Several of these were serious from vessels in the North River. All rest from the Boats.

4 Seamen (2 of them Masters) were provided with books in the room. No Visitor

P. J. Walker

Sunday Aft^r Aug 28th 1864

Services on the same barge. 66 persons present principally from the ships & boats.

62 accompanied us to the room & received books as follows, viz

36 Testaments

24 Bibles - large & small

No A Visitor

P. J. Walker

Sunday Morning Sept 4th 64

A South east Wind prevailing with frequent showers, we were deprived of a numerous gathering

About 20 persons gathered on the Barge notwithstanding the rain. Our missionary impressed upon our hearers the necessity of Faith in all circumstances & principally Faith in the Lord Jesus Christ & was listened to with great attention, even by some rag-muffing boys who had been previously loafing about the wharves.

After we had adjourned to our rooms, 2 Sailors, one from Maine & one from Nova Scotia came for a Bible & prayer Book, as they could not come in the afternoon. The one from Maine had been here 2 years ago & had the Bible yet, which was given to him
P. J. Walker

Sunday After: Sept 4th 1864

A damp disagreeable afternoon.
56 men & boys, met on the same barge. Attention very good, 38 came to the room for books and received. 20 Test & 18 New Books with tracts. No Visitor.

P. J. Walker.

Sunday Morning Sept 11th 1864.

Rain pouring down all the morning. Service on a Barge near the room. 36 persons present, attention excellent. Three of the heavies appeared to be much moved by the discourse.

Tracts, cards & papers distributed.
No Visitor

P. J. Walker

Sunday After: Sept 11th 1864

Rain cleared away. An attendance of 65 on the Barge, very orderly & attentive & mostly sailors & boatmen. 44 persons, (10 of them sailors) came to the room for books & received 1 Bible, 1 Prayer Book, 14 Testaments and 30 Miscellaneous Books.

No Visitor

P. J. Walker.

Sunday Morning September 18th 1864
Service was held on a Barge opposite the Mission Room, which was read by Mr Henry Fisher of the Board - there were 60 persons present - mostly seamen and boatmen - there were ^{also} quite a number of children present. Excellent attention was paid by all.
Rev Mr Walker preached from the text - "Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God" Papers were distributed after the service
B. J. Rogers, volunteer
Henry Fisher

Sunday p.m. Sept 18/1864

Services on a Barge off from the Mission Room about 82 Persons + Baptism 3
Bible 25 Eng + 2 for children 144 Eng + 4 Post Books in Room and on Barge in all 110 persons

also - John B. Holman

C. J. Mitchell & J. P. Clumney

Sunday Morn Sept 25. 1864

Services on a barge near the Room. About 70 persons present. Attention very good Cards, tracts & papers distributed
No Visitors.

R. J. Walker

Sunday Afternoon Sept 25 1864

Bright clear weather. Service held on a Barge opposite the Room - Congregation number one hundred strong - a large portion seamen & boatmen. Sermon by Messrs. - about 45 men, and 25 boys from the boats came to the Room, 14 Sailors - Books

distribution as follows

5 Bibles, 25 English & 1 Swedish Testaments - 45 Miscellaneous books

J. P. Clumney
Volunteer

Sunday Morning Oct 2nd 1864

A cold rainy morning notwithstanding we gathered by our singing a congregation of about 80. - at first we were a little annoyed by a drunken man, who notwithstanding his drunken state was conscious of having heard Mr Walker preach last Sunday, & wanted to hear him preach again.

We had at last ^{to} consent to it, provided he kept quiet, which he did faithfully.

All listened with much attention to our Missionary's sermons, and many joined in the singing with a good will.
Religious Illustrated

Papers were eagerly sought after & we had not enough for them at the conclusion of a hymn the congregation was dismissed with the benediction by our Missionary W. K. Russell.

Sunday Afternoon October 2, 1864
Weather cold and damp but a large attendance of from 100 to 120 upon a convenient Barge. Services and sermon by the Missionary - Congregation very attentive
About 60 men and 20 boys came to the room after service & seamen present.

Books distributed 35 - Testaments / Bible
44 Miscellaneous Books

C. G. Mitchell
L. P. Cummins

Sunday M^o Oct^r 9th 1864.

A very windy & cool morning.
Services on a barge foot of Broad Street.
About 80 persons were present during different parts of the service, but some of them left owing to the high wind & exposed situation. 53 were counted at the close of the sermon. Attention good.
Cards & papers distributed.

No Visitor P. J. Walker.

Sunday Afterⁿ Oct^r 9th 1864

A fine congregation, numbering 124 met on a barge opposite the room.
Attention all that could be wished.

115 men & boys were supplied with Bibles at the room, viz

49 Testaments
68 Miscellaneous books, with Tracts. No Visitor

P. J. Walker

Sunday ^{Oct} 16. 1864

Services on a Canal boat foot of Broad St. - Cloudy day, threatening rain - to a congregation of about 100 persons - generally attentive to the sermon, the Missionary - which was unparalelled -

Cards of Tracts distributed before service - Papers of a service

Henry Fisher

Sunday P.M. Oct^r 16 1864

The services were held on a barge in front of our room, our Missionary preaching to a fine audience of attentive listeners, numbering from one hundred & twenty to 130 - many more having attended a part of the services. - Our Missionary gave us a good sermon which seemed to interest all. Ninety ^{three} came to our rooms & all rec^d books & tracts.

We very much need larger rooms to accommodate those who visit us before as well as after our services on the dock -

The Books distributed were as follows -

24 Eng Testaments - 1 Bible 1 French Testament,
71 Miscellaneous Books large & small
2 Sailors' Manuals
98 in all

Visitors & members present

F N Trowbridge
Thos H Cummings

Sunday Morning Oct 23rd 1864 Services on a Barge at 10 - 11 AM about 60 Boatmen in attendance Very Attentive to Services &c

John P. Holmes
Chur. Secy.

Sunday Afternoon Oct 23rd 1864 -

Services on a Barge opposite the Footy Road 8 - A Congregation of about 100 were assembled upon the close of the sermon, constant accessions having been made & the number during the delivery - All appeared deeply interested in the words of the Preacher.

76 Came to the Barge after the close of the service, and books were distributed to them as follows 24 Testaments 1 Eng 1 German Prayer books & 50 Miscellaneous Books large & small - Also tracts & papers Of the number who rec^d books about 20 were boys employed on boats

Thos H Cummings
Visitor

Sunday AM. Oct 30 - a very beautiful morning - Services by our Missionary on a barge below the Room, to our attention audience of 40 or 100 persons, mostly Boatmen - A very impressive sermon was delivered by H. J. Perkins -

Sunday P.M. Oct 30 1864
 We have had a fine gathering of Seamen & Boatmen etc, & P.M. numbering One hundred & Eighty on the Barge & Dock, Seventy Eight ^{two} ~~one~~ coming up to our room 18 of which were sailors.
 Our Missionary preached & ^{Mr Fisher read the services} all appeared to be much interested in the services. - members of the board present Miss Tracy Fisher Thorpe, Cummings Morgan, Newman, Darvport, Southlee & Ironbridge - continued

Books given out at our room, were as follows -
 30 Testaments }
 57 Miscellanea Books } Paper & Tracts }

Visited a S. Thos
 Sunday M8 Nov 6th 1864.
 Services on a barge foot of Wall St Broad St. The congregation variable in number, owing to the prevalence of a cold North wind. There were more than one hundred present during the different parts of the service. 58 at the commencement of the sermon and 66 at its conclusion. There were a number of seamen present this morning. Cards, tracts & papers distributed.
 No Visitor. R. J. Walker.

Sunday afternoon Nov 13th 1864
Weather a little cool & blustering about 65 persons were gathered on a Barge near the foot of Broad St all of whom were very attentive to the service and to a most earnest sermon by the Missionary After service the Communion and Boutman came to the room where the following Books were distributed to 35, Seven of whom were Sailors

12 Testaments 30 miscellaneous

Books besides Tracts & Papers

W. A. Howbridge

H. E. Hummel

Henry Rogers

Sunday Morning 13th Nov 1864
Service and Sermon by the Missionary. The attendance about 40 persons, mostly boatmen.
Present Messrs Tracy & Davidson of the Advisory Committee.

Sunday Afternoon 13th Nov 1864
Service & Sermon by the Missionary
- and the Rev. Mr. [unclear] very cold blustering weather, about fifty persons present. Books distributed

19 Testaments

1 French Prayer Book

30 Miscellaneous Books

about 9 Seaman's passages in Rooms, and 48 men at [unclear] Boats

J. G. Jenkins

Jas. H. Brown

J. Hopkins

Sunday morning Nov 20th services & sermon by the Missionary - a very unpleasant morning & consequently a small assembly, some 50 or 60 persons coming & going during the services
The R. McEwan

Sunday Afternoon Nov 20th
altho' the weather was very inclement - about 30 persons assembled on a barge at the foot of Broad St. after sermon. about 33 men & boys accompanied the missionary to on Nov. 21 to ~~the~~ Testament. Books & Tracts as follows

15 Testament 18 Books with tract, to each day.

Henry P. Demshutz

John B. Holman

An additional Testament given, to a sailor. R. J. W.

Sunday morning Nov 27th Weather fine, services and sermon by Missionary on board to a very attentive congregation of about 100 Mrs. of whom appeared to be boatmen - ~~Papers~~ Papers & Tracts distributed after sermon.

C. P. Prack

Sund. Aft. Nov 27. 1864

Services on a barge foot of South St. Audience 80, mostly from boats & vessels. Attention very good, & slight interruptions were made by a drunken landsman, no policeman being at hand.

Bags given out at the Room after service.

18 Testaments: 21 Miscellanous Books:

40 Messrs Present of the Board

Chas. Tracy

B Rogers

{ 1 Book was given to a Visitor 1 Testament who came late into the room

Sunday Morning Dec 4th 1864

A beautiful mild morning, more like spring than winter, the only drawback from gathering a large congregation was dirty streets & a want of a proper barge in a convenient place.

However we gathered about 70 at the corner of South St. & Contre St.

Rev. Mr. Walker, preached to an attentive congregation, mostly 130 men, from the Text 1 Corinths 15 Chapter. The sting of Death is Sins 30th

Before & after services Tracts & Cards & illustrated religious Papers were delivered.

A young gentleman Mr.
from the Young men Christian Association of Montreal was present.

Present of the Board, W. Rimmel

Monday afternoon Dec. 4. 1864

Services on a barge at the corner of the slip, about 6 or 75 gathered to the services and remained to the end, and some ^{one} hundred or more were attracted by them, to listen to a part. Books distributed as usual at the room, 18 Testaments, and 29 Miscellaneous books, beside tracts. 47 persons in all supplied with books.

Visitors, Messrs. Morgan & Davanport

Soon afterwards came to the room after the visitors had left and were supplied with books as follows

- 2 Testaments
 - 1 Miscellaneous
- P. J. W.

Sunday ~~after~~ Morning Dec. 11. 1864

Weather very unfavorable: - Snow, mud, wind & cold. Our preacher having left us we met under the least favorable circumstances, in our very little room. Nevertheless our Missionary went through the morning service well preached, with a congregation of 19 persons, 7 of whom were from the shipping; and the impression made was manifestly good and deep. After this we must never be discouraged,

Chas. Tracy.
J. L. Morgan

Sunday afternoon Dec. 11 1864

Weather very raw and rainy. Services held in the room, there were 16 men, 7 of them sailors, 9 Boatsmen, five Bays. Books distributed 5 Testaments & 10 Miscellaneous

Visitors { B. T. Rogers
 H. T. Perkins

Sunday Morning Dec 18th 1864

Services on a Barge - the streets & wharves very muddy, the decks wet.

The Messenger preached an edifying sermon to a very small congregation -

Tracts & Cards distributed by Mr. Kummel before service, & religious papers afterwards -

Members of the Board - Mr. Kummel & Fisher -

20 present

Sunday Afternoon Dec 18/64

Services on a barge in the Ship about 50 persons present - 30 of whom were Deacons 6 lay Trustees - one Swedish Trustee & 15 Books were distributed to the Deacons at the Booms

John B. Hobbs
of the Board

Sunday Morning & Mass day 1864

A beautiful morning but sloppy streets. Services on a Barge by the Mess. Not more than 60 present.
Cards, tracts & papers distributed
No Visitor. P. J. Walker.

Sunday Afternoon December 25 1864

Weather clear. Service held on a Barge opposite the Booms. Thirty Sailors present. Most of them came to the Booms and received books

12 Testaments

3 Prayer Books

20 Miscellaneous

Tracts and papers

J. S. Morgan
Visitor

Three books given to Sailors of the the Visitors' signature P. J. W.